

Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form

FY2025

Note: A potential or actual conflict of interest exists when commitments and obligations are likely to be compromised by the committee applicant's or member's other material interests, or relationships (especially economic), particularly if those interests or commitments are not disclosed.

This Conflict of Interest Form (updated annually) should indicate whether the applicant or member has an economic interest in, or acts as an officer or a director of, any outside entity whose financial interests would reasonably appear to be conflicted with the interests of Teton County, Idaho. The applicant or member should also disclose any personal, business, or volunteer affiliations that may give rise to a real or apparent conflict of interest. Idaho State Code Section 74, Chapter 4, Ethics in Government, and Teton County Idaho established regulations and ethics guidelines must be abided by. Individuals with a conflict of interest should disclose that conflict and refrain from deliberations or decisions related to the conflicting interests.
